DAVID M. BURNETT

Regular Democratic Nominee for Superior Judge, (Short Term)

ely the democratic party ...e had to search a long time to find a more suitable candidate for Superior Judge for the short term than David M. Burnett. So pleased were the members of the party when he consented to allow his n... ...e to be used that no one would think of running against him. Mr. Burnett is by birth and ancestry especially fitted for the d...ties of a judge. He was born ... Francisco, and is thi... ...s of age. He is the ...Peter H. Burnett, the first Governor of California, who was twice ... the Supreme Bench of the St... ...te is the third gen...ation of lawyers in the direct line, his father, John M. Burnett, being a pr...inent attorney in San Francisco, so the reader can see their is a legal strain in the blood. He also has two cousins on the bench—one, Albert G. Burnett, Superior Judge of Sonoma county, and George H. Burnett, Circuit Judge in Oregon.

Mr. Burnett has a large practice in San Jose and represents prominent and leading business concerns in this county. He has also a large general and probate business. He is a most vigorous, industrious lawyer, and painstaking in all matters intrusted to him—just the kind of a man Santa Clara needs for Superior Judge.

Affable, and the friend of all who know him, makes him a popular candidate. Mr. Burnett resides with his family in the beautiful "Gem City," Los Gatos, where the people are hoping that after November 8th they can have the pleasure of calling him Judge Burnett and thereby honor a respected citizen and Native Son.

PRESS NOTES

Mrs. F. W. Halter and baby have been quite ill the past week.

The new railroad time card, in effect now, appears elsewhere.

Eli Wright, candidate for State Senator, was in town Tuesday.

Col. S. F. Cooper arrived safely home from his eastern trip Wednesday.

The Grange will initiate nine candidates at the meeting next Tuesday evening.

Herbert Janes is surveying for the Interurban company the new line to Palo Alto.

The Campbell Fruit Growers' Union is still busy packing prunes for eastern demand.

Miss Rucker, of Pleasanton, is visiting her aunts, Mrs. Benj. Campbell and Mrs. M. Clark.

San Jose baseball team did not show up Sunday and there was no game on the local diamond.

Rev. J. F. Jenness will soon have carpenters at work on his new modern cottage on First street.

Mrs. C. N. Cooper and daughter, Miss May, go to St. Helena Friday to visit Chas. Cooper and wife.

J. M. Bibb and family have gone to Texas to live, they having disposed of their house to Mr. Angello.

Geo. W. Gardner is putting up some 10-pound boxes of fancy prunes for eastern trade, under the "Peerless" brand.

Next Monday evening at Campbell hall Walter Thomas Mills, the great Socialist author and lecturer, will deliver an address on socialism.

Prof. Charles Pannell, after a long rest, caused by illness, is now able to furnish music lessons on string or wind instruments to any one desiring the same.

C. H. Whitman went to the city to witness the parade of the I. O. O. F. Sovereign Lodge. He took the opportunity of enjoying a feast of soul by hearing some noted speakers while there.

R. W. Kennedy and wife are home from Pacific Grove. They stopped at San Juan and visited W. F. Duncan and family on the way home.

Miss La Valle has arrived home from her trip to Canada, accompanied by the two children of Dr. A. E. Sparks, who had been on the eastern trip with Miss La Valle.

C. N. Thompson and family have moved down from the mountains, where Mr. Thompson was working at the Miracle mills. They have rented the Hester house on Railroad avenue.

W. S. Walker, the veteran editor of the Los Gatos Mail, and father of Assmblyman Walker, was thrown beneath his buggy Wednesday and narrowly escaped death. He was assisting his daughter into the buggy at the time.

The Woman's Relief Corps of Los Gatos met with Mrs. Dr. Cooper Wednesday afternoon. A pleasant program was enjoyed and a time of general sociability was had. A basket lunch brought by the members furnished a bountiful spread. About twenty-five ladies were present.

Mrs. J. W. Hunt, wife of the well-known bakery merchant of San Jose, died suddenly Wednesday evening of apoplexy. The Hunt family have been closely associated with the business interests of Campbell for a number of years and the husband and son have the sympathy of our people in their bereavement.

Monday evening at the High School Wallace Bruce Amsbary, the noted reader, will give an entertainment that will be well worth attending. He is supposed to be one of the best monologists in the country and a rich treat is promised our citizens. Admission is 25 cents and the profits go to the school ground fund.

The High School faculty consists of the following: Prof. J. Fred Smith, Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry; Mr. Edward A. Powers, English, History; Miss Ethel B. Catton, History German, Botany; Miss Belle Shepard, Latin. The school now has over 75 students and under this able corps of teachers will forge ahead.

Under "Candidates' Cards" will be found the announcements of M. Farrell for Supervisor, D. M. Byrnett, Nicholas Bowden and J. R. Welch for Superior Judges, Eli Wright and W. H. B. Trantham for State Senator and J. D. Kuykendall for Assemblyman. Of each we will have more to say during the progress of the campaign.

J. L. Hagelin has not been in Campbell long, but he has demonstrated that he knows the value of keeping his orchard in first-class condition even to the expenditure of money to gain the desired point. He has contracted for one hundred loads of stable fertilizer to be placed on his nineteen-acre orchard and L. A. Miller, Orvil McCoy, C. W. Greene and D. R. Oliver are doing the work.

The usual monthly Missionary meeting of the Congregational church was held at the church on Thursday afternoon. Miss Laura Richards, president of foreign missions on the Pacific coast, gave a good account of the work being done. Mrs. E. S. Williams, of Saratoga, also spoke. A report of the Oakland annual meeting of both foreign and home missions was given by Mrs. Schuyler. The meeting was a very enjoyable one.

The electrical storm Wednesday evening was the severest we have ever seen in this State and reminded many of us of our old eastern homes. It made things lively at the telephone central office and all kinds of stories are afloat as to the fears of the occupants, while it is said Bob Hamilton insists that he was about done for—when one of those flashes and heavy claps of thunder came. A PRESS neighbor very much desired a large feather bed. Rain fell here to a limited extent.

Campbell boys are well represented at the different fruit packing houses in San Jose, no doubt caused by the skill obtained at the local concerns here: Dan Evans is the foreman at Luehning & Co., while the following are working there: Ross Thom, Harry Carder, Carson Benner, Chas. Lewis and Chas. White. Mrs. C. R. Lewis and Miss Ruth Brown are also holding good positions there. At the Phoenix Packing Co. Arthur Hutchins is in charge and Albert Brown and Albert Vollmer are employed there. For the Armour Refrigerator Co. Fred Pannell is the manager and Herbert Gard is working for him. This is an important place Fred is holding and he expects soon to go to Sacramento for the company.

SPECIAL EDITION.

We have secured our new type and material for the purpose of issuing a Special Edition of the CAMPBELL INTERURBAN PRESS, along the lines proposed some time ago when publishing the Visitor. We have a large number of contracts for advertising, and with our increased facilities propose to get out an edition that will be a credit to the town.

STREET lights are an absolute necessity during the dark winter nights. Can't we have them?

ALL honor to Hearst and his eight papers for demonstrating that the people will buy prunes and raisins if given a chance.

LET no unsanitary place be left in that condition. Scarlet fever and other contageous diseases should be guarded against. Be vigilant.

WHY can't an arrangement be made to have an incandescent light burn all night in each of the stores and offices having same? More than one reason why it would be advantageous.

WE trust the extra amount of reading matter this week will compensate for a slight delay in getting out the PRESS. The Oriole and PRESS are two pretty large jobs to get out in six days.

CAMPBELL will soon have a large number of visitors over the new car line. Now is the time to begin to put your streets, sidewalks, yards and other property in order. A town is judged largely by its appearance.

W. H. B. TRANTHAM, the veteran editor of the Los Gotos News, is the candidate on the democratic ticket for State Senator in this district and is a man the people can place confidence in. He would make a good, conscientious and honest official if elected.

GEORGE WALDORF, democratic candidate for the Assembly in this district, is a young man of ability, having worked nights as a proofreader and studied law during the day time. He has been very successful as a lawyer and will be a hard worker for his constituents if elected. He is a self-made man. Give him a boost.

THE demand in San Francisco, Sacramento and other towns is still very great for prunes and raisins. A San Francisco firm has been corresponding with C. H. Whitman relative to his furnishing them with large quantities in packages. Verily it appears that we have at last come to the proper method of marketing a large quantity of our prunes. Let us set an example by eating prunes ourselves. A gentleman told the writer today that he had been in the valley three weeks but had seen no prunes on a table as yet. Eat prunes.

THE democrats have nominated two exceedingly strong and able candidates for Superior Judge. D. M. Burnett for the short term and Nicholas Bowden for the long term, are two men of known ability and would do honor to any bench. Both well known and well liked, it is certain they will poll a very large vote, and if signs count for anything stand a good chance of election. It is practically conceded now that Mr. Burnett will defeat Judge Rhodes, for more reasons than one. He is an energetic and active man, while Judge Rhodes is too far advanced in years to expect the hearty support of the voters.

THE park matter is a serious problem just now. With the new electric line along Railroad avenue that thoroughfare is too narrow for traffic to and from the depot. It has been suggested that the park hedge be removed and the park made smaller, with a wider avenue on the east side for vehicles. A smaller park with a well-kept grass plot and a neat open waiting station adjoining would be the proper thing. As it is no one will ever use the park as a resting place, and as the railroad will not assist in keeping it in shape, why not fix it so that it can be of service and at the same time more presentable.

New Type and Material.

THE CAMPBELL INTERURBAN PRESS has just received this week a $150.00 supply of new type and material. A new dress of type for the paper has been added and from now on the paper will present even a better appearance than the numbers already issued. New display type for the ads. will give our advertisers the best possible results. The large amount of other printing office accessories which have just arrived from the type foundry makes it possible for us to get out the best class of work on the shortest possible time, and with fast presses (including a new, modern Golding jobber), electric motor and electric lights makes this one of the best equipped offices outside of San Jose. In addition to the above we have engaged an experienced printer to assist in getting out the PRESS and other job printing which may come to this office. Come in and see our new material.

Eat raisins—and less candy. Our grocers keep them. If they don't they ought to; and the best on the market.

Distinguished Visitors.

P. W. Waldenstrom, D. D., a Swedish Congressman, who with his family, is touring the United States, recently arrived in San Francisco via Canada. They were met in the city by Mr. John Brynteson and Mr. J. L. Hagelin and their families, of Campbell. They were escorted to San Jose and upon their arrival were driven throughout the orchard district, and were entertained at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Brynteson, just east of town, for a few days. Dr. Waldenstrom went to Southern California while his family remained here, and after his return they left for Salt Lake on their return to Europe. Dr. Waldenstrom is one of the noted lecturers of Scandinavia.

Dr. C. W. Johnson and wife, of Chicago, have been spending a few days at the homes of J. Brynteson and J. L. Hagelin, having recently arrived from Nome, Alaska, where he has been looking after his mining interests. They will leave for the east Friday.

One dollar buys the PRESS a year.

THE ELECTRIC ROAD HERE.

Wonderful Progress Being Made on the Short Line.

Marvelous is the only way we can express the manner in which the Interurban company is rushing its work. As we go to press the curve is being put in from Campbell to Railroad avenue, and by Saturday the road will be completed to Campbell, with possibly the exception of the bridge part.

Last Saturday at midnight a large force of men went to work and dug up trees, laid ties and rails from the bridge to Railroad avenue and leaving the avenue for the time being began work again just below the depot and by noon had a row of trees dug out, road bed scraped level, ties and rails laid clear to the Almaden branch, one mile south of town. Such rustling was an inovation, and caused great wonderment when the people of our town awoke Sunday morning to see what had been done.

This piece of rush work was caused by a little friction between the company and Page brothers as to the right of way over their property, and the company took this means of getting the work done on a Sunday so no injunction suit could be commenced.

Surely our people are to be congratulated on having the road through so soon, and before we know it cars will be running.

Miss Alice Joy Wins Prize.

Campbell Union High School has the honor of graduating the young lady that captured a prize at the State University. Miss Joy was in the class of '03. The Examiner dispatch from Berkeley says: "To Miss Alice Joy, a member of the Sophomore class of the University of California, belongs the distinction of having written the prize-winning football song of the season. Her production was by far the best of the songs submitted, although H. W. Bingham, a junior, received honorable mention for 'Our Team,' a song with original music. Miss Joy's song, which is set to the music of 'Die Wacht am Rhein,' is as follows:"

The thrill we knew of old is here,
The white lines stretch out far and clear,
  All hail! All hail! the blue and gold!
  Thy sons salute thee as of old.
California, thy day is bright,
California, thy day is bright,
Thy mighty sons will win, will win the fight!

The whistle shrills, all hearts beat high,
The blue and gold leaps to the sky,
  California! California!
  We're playing with a rah! rah! rah!

Oh, blue and gold, thy day is bright,
Oh, blue and gold, thy day is bright,
Thy mighty sons will win, will win the fight!
Thy mighty sons will win, will win the fight!

Let fields be wet or fields be dry,
The golden bear reigns in the sky,
  California! California!
  The hills sends back our rah! rah! rah!

Oh, blue and gold, thy day is bright,
Oh, blue and gold, thy day is bright,
Thy mighty sons will win, will win the fight!

At State Grange.

Orchard City Grange of Campbell is represented at the State Grange meeting in Oakland by Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Mitchell. Mr. Mitchell, as master of the local Grange, reported a membership of 145. Walter Hyde, master of Lincoln Grange, reported that they own their own hall. Delegates from this county played an important part on the program and committees as evidenced by the reports from there.

B. G. Hurlburt, of Campbell, spoke at some length on co-operative insurance, giving the history of the farmers' insurance laws of the state.

Santa Clara county Granges are well represented in the list of chairmen of the various committees. They are: Legislative, B. G. Hurlburt; finance, F. E. Mitchell; co-operation, George W. Worthen; press, Mrs. E. B. Marcen; division of labor, C. R. Williams; education, Mrs. M. J. Worthen. Other Santa Clara county patrons are members of several of the standing committees.

Freshman Reception.

The reception given by the upper classes of the High School to the Freshmen last Friday night was a very pleasant affair, taking place at the school house. An enjoyable program was presented, consisting of a piano solo by Prof. Powers, a vocal solo by Miss Edna Briggs, a most interesting talk by Prof. Smith and a piano solo by Miss Brandenburg.

A jolly time with games followed, after which refreshments were served.

The decorations were very handsome, consisting of branches of pepper and festoons of crepe paper in the various class colors, the red and green of the Freshmen class predominating.

Patronize our advertisers; they merit it and they are entitled to to a fair share.

Show your colors! Campaign buttons in great variety at Miss Lawrence's.

Mrs. Gower, a relative of Mr. Campbell, died last Sunday at her residence on South Ninth st., San Jose.

Miss Mary Lewis went to San Francisco last Friday, where her work as teacher in the National Training School will begin Oct. 10th.

Miss Iris Searoy, who has spent some months with her aunt, Mrs. Poor, left for her home in Berkeley last Friday morning.

About thirty members of the Degree of Honor gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Watson Wednesday evening of last week and proceeded to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. A. Kelley. As their visit had not been announced beforehand they succeeded in giving them a pleasant surprise. Bro. Kelley and wife having completed pulling up stakes —or the carpets, rather—in preparation for their move to Aromas, the party adjourned to the home of Henry Campbell, where the evening was pleasantly spent in games and a general good time. After a splendid supp r the guests departed, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Kelley a pleasant and prosperous future in their new home and in token of their affection they presented Mrs. Kelley with a handsom Degree of Honor pin.

Man Without a Hat.

Lewis Henry Miller, 34 years of age, and a resident of Campbell, believes he has stumbled upon beneficent secrets of nature sufficient, through practical, systematic application, to put the medical fraternity out of business. There is no reason, he says, why green old age should not fall to the lot of every sensible human being.

He is tall, finely muscled, clear-eyed, and the picture of health. Once the unwilling proprietor of several disturbing ailments, he is now, so he avers, physically without a flaw. By reading, thinking and experimenting he claims to have not only discovered the cause of the disease with which he was afflicted, but has also found and applied the means of removal.

Troubled with indigestion and attendant ills, he made himself a well man in a week. All he had to do was to change his diet. He abstained from eating cooked foods and fell back on raw fruits, vegetables and nuts. In one year he cured himself of an obstinate case of catarrh. This was done by the removal of his coat, vest and hat and the use of such clothing as would permit free body ventilation and at the same time prevent undue perspiration.

The removal of the hat, while assisting in the cure of catarrh, also cured him of baldness. He has not worn a hat for two years. By wearing proper clothing, sleeping at night in a room allowing the free passage of air by means of two windows, and exercising whenever necessary, he has made himself, so he says, impervious to cold. Every morning he takes a cold-water bath and his clothing is uniform year in and year out. He never drinks during meals, believing that nature's secretion is sufficient for the processes of mastication and digestion Fashion, in his opinion, is ruining the health of the people. Go back to nature, is his creed.—San Jose Herald.

Examiner Prune Story.

Good morning, fair reader of "The Examiner," and have you gone shopping for raisins and prunes this week?

Not yet? Then put on your hat right away. Drop your sewing. Never mind the dishes. Let them wait till you get back. You must go early if you would avoid the climax of the daily rush to Weinstock & Lubin's fourth floor. You'll be sorry if you miss this golden opportunity that the big firm at Grant avenue and Geary street is generously giving you.

For a few days you may get, at actual cost price, as many one-pound cartons of fine home-grown raisins and prunes as you can carry—only 5 cents per pound. No charge for the scuffing of floors by thousands of feet hurrying in on the same errand. No charge for making the elevator man look as though this popularity of the prune and seductiveness of the raisin would make him gray as a badger in three more days of strenuous lifting and dumping of human freight, package laden. Poor chap, he thinks that all the world's a prune, and men and women merely buyers. They have their exits and their entrances, and each in his time carries many cartons. No extra charge, in fact, for anything. You pay your nickles and you take your choice. If you're half as wise as an infinitesimal ant, you'll not lose any time in laying up a plentiful supply of these delicious California products for the near winter's use.

Mothers and wives, whether the mouths to feed at home are little or big, it doesn't matter. Prunes and raisins are healthgiving food. And, now, for a few days more, they're yours at bargain prices, thanks to the progressiveness of Weinstock & Lubin.

Yesterday a hustler from New Zealand, who knows a good thing when he sees it and doesn't wait for some other fellow to get ahead of him, found out what was happening in the big store.

"I'll take 8,000 of those cartons," he said, as quietly as though he were buying a twelfth of a dozen pair of socks. "Ship them to me—Graecon j. Black's my name—at Akoroa, New Zealand. Four tons will do for an introduction of California fruit down there. My order is only a beginner."

Large as the crowds were at Weinstock & Lubin's yesterday, the purchasers were accommodated comfortably and quickly. More than 15,000 packages—seven and a half tons—were sold. Manager Bonaheim said to an "Examiner" representative: "Really, I did not think the people of the city would be so ready to assist us in distributing the raisins and prunes, as 'The Examiner' suggested in its editorial. We are selling at cost and our sales have been immense. In all, during the three days' sales, we have disposed of over 23,000 packages. Our elevators are crowded from morning to night with purchasers. You never saw anything like it. Of our order for 40,000 pounds we have sold already all but 17, 00 pounds. We shall sell probably 100,000 packages in this city before we quit. We will try the same thing in our store in Sacramento and shall try making the farmers eat fruit. To meet the demands at both stores we are going to place at once an order for 10,000 pounds a day during the sale, as we think we will get rid of an average amount equalling that. Already we are hearing many compliments paid to Mr. Hearst for proposing this method of getting the people of California and the east acquainted with the good fruit growing at home. We are glad to be of service in helping the work along."

The sale of 75,000 pounds yesterday by the San Francisco firm exceeded any one day's sale by the New York firm of the Siegel-Cooper Company, who introduced raisins and prunes at cost to the people of the Eastern metropolis. Their largest day's sale was 12,000 pounds.—S. F. Examiner, Sept. 29th.

Eli Wright for Senator.

Here are some of the reasons why Hon. Eli Wright, republican nominee for State Senator, will be elected by a large majority:

First—This is a republican year with Roosevelt at the head of the ticket.

Second—A United States Senator is to be elected at the next legislature.

Third—The district is republican by a natural majority of 1500 votes.

Fourth—All factions of the party are satisfied with Mr. Wright's nomination and united in his support.

Fifth—He is a great vote getter, having run 1,100 votes ahead of his ticket four years ago and 1,200 ahead two years ago.

Sixth—As an Assemblyman for two terms he was found to be an honest, capable and safe representative of the people.

Such a man, supported by a united republican party for State Senator in this district, cannot fail to be elected by a majority of at least 2,000 votes.

There's no mystery in good paint making. It's only "cheap" and inferior paint that surrounds itself with secrecy and mystery.

THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINT

is not a "patent" or "chemical" paint. There's no secret or mystery about it. It's a pure lead, pure zinc, and pure linseed oil paint. A prune picking match between two boys on the Almaden road near the Twelve Mile house a few days ago ended in a fight. Alvino Bulna charged the other boy, Frank Morales, with assaulting him with a deadly weapon. The case was tried, and the evidence showed that though Morales did discharge a shotgun at the plaintiff he was too far distant to have meant harm.

Don't be foolish enough to dislike the automobiles. Don't throw anything in the way of developing the automobile by discouraging automobile owners or otherwise opposing the progress of an important invention. We do not mean to advise that reckless automobilists should be dealt with otherwise than severe, but we do want to impress, especially upon those who have no automobiles of their own, the fact that the man who spends his money for a costly automobile is working for the benefit of all. Eventually the automobile will benefit the poor man more than the rich, as the bicycle does now. Once upon a time only fairly prosperous people owned a hundred dollar bicycle. Others, poorer, jealous or ignorant, scattered tacks and broken glass on the bicycle paths. Today the bicycle is owned almost exclusively by those of very moderate means. —S. F. Examiner.

Detective Robert Anderson has grown in his back yard this year a few cotton plants, which recently have been in bloom, and he proposes to experiment more extensively this coming season, and also with tobacco, of which he has received some rare seed from his old home in the south. On the cotton plantations the cotton is usually planted in April and harvested in September. When the blossom appears it is a beautiful white color; the second day it is red, and the third day it falls off and leaves the young boll, which grows to the size of a hen's egg in about two months, when it fluffs out and is ready to gather.—Mercury.

Climatic Conditions Ideal for Fruit Culture.

By E. J. WICKSON.

Professor of Agricultural Practice, University of California, and Horticulturist of the California Experiment Station; author of "California Fruits and How to Grow Them" and "California Vegetables in Garden and Field;" Horticultural Editor of the "Pacific Rural Press," of San Francisco.

How did fruits come to California? First they came fresh from the hands of the Creator. Wild apples, plums, cherries, grapes, blackberries, raspberries, strawberries, gooseberries, cranberries, huckleberries, elderberries, currants, &c., practically all fruits whose names and characters are common to English speech are native to California, and the species thereof are, for the most part, different from those found wild elsewhere. Besides all such are other fruits of semi-tropical fame, such as the almond, the olive, the jujube, &c., which have botanical relatives peculiar to California. The wild fruits were the delight of the aboriginal Indians and bears; many of them refreshed the throngs of gold seekers of 1849, and some still remain in local esteem. Wild fruits climb to the snow line in the mountains, crest the ridges of the foothills, festoon the river banks, hang upon cliffs or spread upon the sand beaches of the ocean. The Record says: "And the Lord planted a garden eastward in Eden;" it might have continued, "and westward in California."

Second—Fruits came to California In His Name. The Spanish missionaries reached Lower California in 1697 and entered our territory in 1769 to Christianize the Indians. For this purpose they established missions which comprised churches, residences and farms, to render the establishments self-supporting. Between 1769 and 1823 more than a score were founded through a distance of about 500 miles along the California coast under authority of the Kings of Spain and all of them had irrigated gardens planted with fruits from Mediterranean countries. Thus came the first cultivated apples, cherries, pears, plums, peaches and apricots, grown from seed of the then popular kinds in Spain. The grape and fig came also in the form of cuttings. But the most significant contribution by the padres was the introduction of distinctively semi-tropical fruits—the orange, citron, lime, olive and pomegranate. Fruits were grown in considerable quantities at the Missions and possibly the aboriginal conscience was sometimes approached by way of the palate. The Mission vineyards were of notable area and value of wine product; in fact, the beginning of the export wine trade consisted in a shipment of Mission wine from Lower California to Mexico in 1707, where it was exchanged for other goods. The first commercial growing by Americans was in 1850 when, securing possession of the remnants of the old Mission gardens, they stimulated them to new production and sold the products to the inrushing gold seekers.
